BRITT STILL CHAMPION

Got Decision Over "Kid" Sullivan Last Night.

AT END OF 20TH ROUND

Had Better of Fight All the Way Through But Was Not Able to Land a Knockout Blow on Sullivan.

San Francisco, July 22.—James E. Britt of California was given the decision over "Kid" Sullivan of Washington, D. C., at Woodward's pavilion here last night at the end of the 20th round and retains the lightweight championship of the world.

Britt seemed to have the best of the fight throughout but was not able to give a knockout blow. The decision was well received as Britt was the favorite before the fight began.

BURIAL TOMORROW.

Victims of Bennington Accident Are Still Dying.

Washington, July 22.—The following was received this morning at the Navy Department from Commander Lucien Young of the gunboat Bennington:

"Arrangements are being made to bury the dead at Fort Rosecrans, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. There are several bodies pinned under the boilers and covered with water. Have engaged a fire engine to pump out the water and assist in their recovery. Expect that several men died during the night."

HIS USEFULNESS GONE.

Conservatives Realize That Balfour Has Lost Power.

London, July 22.—While no one outside of the cabinet knows what decision was reached in regard to resigning at yesterday's meeting of the ministers, conservatives realize that whether or not Premier Balfour resigns, the usefulness of the present government is practically at an end in case the ministers agree to retain their portfolios. The chief reason for this action will be to avoid a general election during hot weather. There is little doubt but that the reign of the Conservatives is practically over and while the present session of Parliament may last several weeks, it is the general expectation that the Liberals will come into power in the autumn.

BOYCOTT IS SPREADING.

New Covers Area in Which There Are 150,000,000 People.

Shanghai, July 22.—The boycott of American goods, which has been declared by Chinese merchants, as a protest against the rigorous exclusion of Chinese from the United States has now spread throughout the southern provinces. American enterprises are being barred absolutely from a large area, having a population of one hundred and fifty millions.

ONE MACHINE BROKE DOWN.

With That Exception All Autoists Arrived at Lenox.

Lenox, Mass., July 22.—With one exception all of the automobilists who are participating in the run from the White Mountains to New York city, had arrived here last night. Mrs. J. M. Cuno of Richmond Hill, L. I., did not finish, owing to a breakdown about 20 miles east of here.

ANOTHER BOMB THROWN.

Several People Killed and Others Were Wounded Yesterday.

Byelostok, Russia, July 22.—A bomb thrown in the center of the town yesterday killed several persons and severely wounded a number of others, including the chief of police and his son.

Paid His Mother's Fine.

Mrs. Jennie Myers was arraigned in Burlington city court Wednesday morning on the charge of being intoxicated. She was good and drunk when arrested as the police testified, but she was inclined to be stubborn the next morning and pleaded not guilty. She declared she was not drunk at the time of her arrest, although she had "been drinking some." Persuasion was of no value, whatever, and the woman would have it no other way than a plea of not guilty. She was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs of $17.55, the costs being increased of course because of the nature of the plea. She was returned to jail not knowing whether she could pay or not. She was fortunate in possessing the right kind of a son, a lad of 16 years of age, who is employed laying at Shelburne. He came up with the money he had been saving, paid the fine and costs and took his mother back home. Several advised him to let her stay in jail 10 days, but he was not that kind of a boy.

The Red Men who attended the moving picture exhibition Thursday night will meet at Miles' hall instead of the K. of C. hall as first announced.

STARTED AT BOTTOM.

Burlington Youths Left Home Without Cent of Money.

Burlington, July 22.—Harry Dudley, a 20-year-old boy who hails from Rutland and by occupation is a fancy dancer, singer and follower of fairs and fake shows, is the cause of lots of trouble. Theodore Halo, aged 15 years, Thomas Hathaway, aged 17 years and Napoleon Delisle, aged 15 years are in the hands of the police at Rutland. The boys were apprehended by the police of that city about 9:30 o'clock last evening, after having received word from the local police that the boys had run away from home.

They all met in front of the lunch cart on Main street on Thursday evening. Dudley had eight dollars in money. He said that when he started out in life he always wanted to begin at the bottom of the ladder and he accordingly threw the eight dollars into the gutter, from which place the lads were quickly picked up by the urchins who were hanging around listening to his plans. The party started on foot for Rutland. They were heard from at Shelburne and it is believed that somewhere along the line they caught a freight train to get to Rutland last evening.

PRESS MEN MEET.

Midsummer Meeting at Brattleboro Last Night.

Brattleboro, July 22.—The Vermont Press association held its midsummer meeting here last evening with about 30 members in attendance.

At eight o'clock the party sat down to a bountiful banquet at the Brooks House, which was tendered by the Brattleboro newspaper men. At the conclusion of the banquet the party retired to the hotel parlors, where they listened to choice selections by Stella Brazzi, the famous operatic contralto, known at home here as Harriet Braso Pratt. The guest of honor was Clifton L. Sherman, managing editor of the Hartford Courant and a former Brattleboro boy, who won fame in the newspaper world. He spoke upon "Newspaper Men and Their Work" and gave a very interesting and comprehensive address. He was given a rising vote of thanks by the association.

CLEARING THE JAIL.

Prisoners Being Taken to the House of Correction.

Woodstock, July 22.—There was a clearing out of Windsor county jail yesterday when a batch of five prisoners were taken to the House of Correction to serve sentences for liquor selling, bigamy, and other crimes. They were Ethel Burroughs and Wm. Nichols of Springfield, Mary Tatro of Hartford, George E. Parker of Plymouth and Louis Roncolette of Ludlow.

Harry Casner, the Rutland horse thief, indicted for burglary of the Tinkham store at Quechee five years ago, was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of grand larceny. Sentence was deferred.

ARCHIBALD IN A FIGHT.

Manchester Representative Got Knock Down Over Base Ball.

Rutland, July 22.—Frank C. Archibald of Manchester was arrested here last night after a fight with J. H. Callahan, manager of the Rutland base ball team. Archibald met Callahan in company with E. R. Hopkins, one of the directors of the local team, and accused the manager of getting unfair umpires and resorting to unfair methods. The lie was passed and Archibald made a pass at Callahan receiving in return a blow which knocked him down. He was arrested and late last evening before city Judge Ross pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault. He furnished $50 bail. The hearing was set for next Monday morning at eleven o'clock.

Chief of Police Shot.

Helsingfors, Finland, July 22.—Col. Krenarenko, chief of police, was shot yesterday by a man named Procopie and is in a critical condition. Procopie was arrested and has been identified as an accomplice of the man who recently attempted to assassinate former Governor Miesojedoff.

WILL LOOK UP MR. LITTLE.

Man Who Wants to Locate Industry Here Will Be Encouraged.

The city council and the committee from the Merchants' Association, F. D. Ladd, E. C. Owens and E. A. Prindle, met in conference last evening on the letter from Thomas D. Little of Manchester, N. H., who expressed a desire to locate an industry in Barre employing from 25 to 50 men, if he received proper encouragement.

Mr. Little's letterhead stated his business was "factory supplies," but the aldermen or merchants had no information, and it was decided before doing anything further that the mayor and president of the board in conjunction with the merchants' committee look up Mr. Little, his standing, etc., and report to their respective bodies.

A letter addressed to Mr. Little by the city clerk was returned by the Manchester postal authorities with the endorsement: "Cannot be found."

WENT INSANE.

Antonio Prario Bombed the Doctors in Montpelier.

Antonio Prario of Montpelier became violently insane yesterday. Dr. Parmenter and Watson went to his house on Taplin street to examine him as to his sanity and were met by a fusillade of implements ranging from chains to chains. Prario went to the telephone office earlier in the day and sent a despatch to his brother to send him some money. He carried two stones in his hands. A short time later another brother went to the telephone office and telegraphed the distant brother not to send any money. Prario came to Montpelier twelve years ago but went away some time ago. He returned to Montpelier a week ago and during the time since has kept to his room most of the time. It is said that he has acted queerly since the death of his mother six months ago.

TOO STRONG FOR VICKERS

Giants Broke "The Rube's" Spell Over Them.

AND BATTED OUT VICTORY

Eaton and Stankard Pounded Out Home Runs, and Other Players Sandwiched in Hits at Convenient Times.

Singularly enough, that dark colored youth, Matthews, of Harvard College, was the bulwark which stood between Burlington and a particularly white coat of whitewash at Intercity park yesterday afternoon. Matthews slammed out a home run in the eighth inning, and kept the visitor's score from being a succession of big, round figures. The defeat administered to Whitney's pets was a humiliating one, nevertheless, and the downfall of "Rube" Vickers was in the same degree. Vickers cannot lay the score of 3 to 1 to poor support, for the Burlington team played with only one error and made some brilliant efforts.

The sad truth is that "Rube" got bumped.

And there were not many hits, either—seven—but they were as opportune as a check from home. Two of them were home runs, by Eaton and Stankard, and the rest were hard hit singles.

Burlington got seven hits, too, off Coombs, but "Jack" kept them scattered so that the visitors were not dangerous except in one inning, the sixth, when Coombs gave Hazelton a free pass, and Brennan followed with a two-bagger to left, with none out. But the runners were held by clever work. Simon, the "pinch hitter," was out, Uniac to Ashmore. Page struck out and Shaugnessy made a beautiful catch of Skelly's fly after a long run. Another brilliant play was dropped in by McMahon who captured Brennan's long fly in the eighth. Two fast doubles were worked by the home team, and Matthews executed one unaided for Burlington. By fast work Dowd robbed Stankard of an almost sure hit in the fourth.

The batting features were the three home runs, and also the two singles by Vickers who worked hard to win his game amidst the most merciless word bombardment a pitcher ever got here. Glad in an immaculate suit of white, fresh from the laundry, the out-law was more of a target than usual.

The Giants started off poorly, or rather Uniac did. With two down Uniac fumbled Matthews' grounder and then dropped Eaton's accurate throw when the dark streak started to steal second. Coombs stopped the inning by tossing Hazelton's grounder to Ashmore. Things looked dubious again in the second when Stankard fooled Brennan's grounder. Simon sent him to second with a sacrifice and then Page got tickled by a fast shoot from Coombs. But "Boots" gathered in Skelly's fly and Coombs disposed of Vickers on strikes. The only other error by the Giants was made by the usually sure McMahon, who dropped Dowd's fly in the fifth, but no harm was done.

Ashmore made the first tally in the third when he singled to short right, was neatly sacrificed by Morey and went to third on Coombs' out, short to first. Shaugnessy hit to short left and Aldinger dropped the ball, Ashmore going in. Ashmore made the second score in the fifth when Vickers foolishly gave him a base on balls. Morey couldn't sacrifice, and when he fanned at the third ball Ashmore stole second. Brennan made a high throw and Ashy slipped right along to third, from which station he scored on Coombs' long fly that Aldinger gathered in after a run.

The best hitting of the game came in the seventh. Eaton came up and did the cheering of the crowd for his plucky work in continuing after getting a swift one on a sore shoulder. He responded by swatting the first ball pitched for a home run, the ball dropping over the center field fence. Vickers got nervous again, and again gave Ashmore a free ticket. "Cy" Morey again did the sacrifice dodge to perfection. Coombs was there with a safe one to the fence and Ashmore scored his third run of the game. Shaugnessy singled to right. The best Dorman could offer was a pop to Brennan, but Uniac worked "Rube" for the second free ticket of the inning. McMahon got too anxious, however, the third strike being a foot above his head.

Matthews made good in the eighth with a home run, and Stankard did the same, after getting two strikes. The visitors made a try in the ninth. Page struck out, but Skelly singled. "Rube" did the same. It was up to Dowd and he did just what he did the time before, hit into a fast double play, with Ashmore and Uniac handling the ball. The score:

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE GAME.

That's the way to turn out, boys—and girls.

It was one of those rare occasions when the Intercitys have got the best of Mr. Vickers.

Ashmore made three of the five scores. Let "Ruth" get on first, and it's a pretty sure thing that he'll get around.

"Rube" didn't want to slide with that nice white uniform on. The suit was in great contrast to Hazelton's battle-worn suit.

The sun bothered the outfielders greatly, and was responsible for McMahon's and Aldinger's errors. But it didn't prevent them from making some good plays, too.

Burns, who has been laid up for a week, did the official scoring. He says he will step into the box today is asked, but the management will probably let him get a little stronger.

What a relief! There wasn't a kick on the umpire, and not a player even screwed his face into an interrogation point. McCloud did commendable work. The league should lose no time in engaging him.

"Sheldon" Ruelbach, the idol of the local fans last year and Chicago's rising youngster, watched the game from a team out in right field and discussed the points with a fair companion from Montpelier. He was generally recognized, although when he drove onto the field he was given a cheer, and also as he went off.

A foul tip got by Eaton and the catcher started back for it, but the ball wasn't in sight. Eaton looked on the ground and then at the sky. Meanwhile Umpire McCloud was trying to extract the sphere from his bosom. Just how the ball found its way behind the chest protector it is difficult to say. McCloud didn't wince, nor did he when he got a foul tip straight in the breast.

EXCITING GAME.

Rutland Won Out From Plattsburg Yesterday, 6 to 3.

Rutland, July 22.—Plattsburg succeeded in doing the score with Rutland yesterday afternoon, and then the home team went in and batted out a victory, hitting Warren, the New Yorker's new pitcher, at will. Robertson, Rutland's old first baseman, got two safe swipes, as did Shean, Shannon and Doecher. Plattsburg could do little with Doecher's pitching. The final score was 6 to 3, the victory giving Rutland second place in the Northern league.

Charles N. Scott Loses Boat and Boat House.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE, TOO

Was in Boathouse on Lake Champlain With Lantern When Gasoline Caught Fire—He Jumped for His Life.

Charles N. Scott of the Acme Granite company, and residing in East Barre, is in the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington suffering from severe burns received last night in the burning of his boat and boathouse at Burlington. In order to escape death Mr. Scott had to leap into the water. With the flames extinguished he was able to get back onto the pier, where his cries brought assistance.

The fire caught from an overturned lantern which Mr. Scott was using. The boathouse was in flames in an incredibly short time, and with his clothes blazing the owner was forced to seek refuge in the water. A fire alarm was rung in, but it was impossible to save either the boat, which is a 25-foot gasoline launch, or the boathouse which sheltered it. Nearly in the lumberyard of the Shepard & Morse company, and the fire department turned its attention toward preventing the spread of the flames to the lumber piles which were in close proximity.

A despatch from Burlington today states that Mr. Scott is much better today and that his injuries are not serious. He was burned about the face and hands mostly. J. E. Trail, H. C. Wheelock and H. E. Cutler were the first to the man's aid.

Mr. Scott's boat was a valuable one, on which he carried an insurance of $500. He has had the boat on Lake Champlain for three summers.

TYPEWRITER AGENT EXPLAINS.

Tells How Local Attorney Deposited Him Outside the Door.

Your attention having been called to the trivial incident in a "prominent attorney's office," it demands explanation. The agent wishes to say in defense that without as much as a word with the distinguished person referred to, he, the agent, in a very ungentlemanly manner, was forced from this public office, but was pleased to see the respect and care with which the man decided
